

I wish to voice my opposition to a move by the FCC to expand the service of Low Power FM (LPFM) to have priority over FM translator services. Currently my friends and I love to listen to K-LOVE radio, which is on a FM translator. K-LOVE promotes positive family values and community involvement and I believe that it is in the public's best interest to keep it (and like programs) on the air.